
Image coordinates increase rightward and downward.
Distances are measured in pixels.